

Dear Sir/Madam,

Jacopo Zanette studied with me for a Master's degree at The Royal Conservatoire in The Hague. He is a great talent and has a lot of potential to become an artist and teacher of international stature. His Master research about the latin influences in Jazz is a very interesting and important addition to the international catalogue of drumbooks. In having the opportunity to be a trainee at the Jazz Department of the Ionian University in Corfu would be very valuable for his development as a teacher.

With kind regards,

Eric Ineke
