

Hornist Patrick Hodge is an East-Tennessee native who has performed in famous worldwide venues such as Suntory Hall in Tokyo with the Pacific Music Festival under maestro Fabio Luisi, Carnegie Hall under maestro Alan Gilbert and the Hollywood Bowl. Mr. Hodge has attended numerous music festivals including Spoleto Festival USA, the Music Academy of the West, the Sarasota Music Festival and the Eastern Music Festival. A graduate of the Juilliard School and Colburn Conservatory, Mr. Hodge has also performed with orchestras across the United States including the Los Angeles Philharmonic, the Colorado Symphony, the Cincinnati Symphony, the Columbus Symphony and the Harrisburg Symphony. An avid orchestral musician, Mr. Hodge just recently won the position of Assistant and Utility Horn in the Colorado Symphony.